

Recordings by 35th Parallel

Crossing Painted Islands

"Pure sonic sorcery."
– Seven Days

35th Parallel's 2006 release. The album features members of the 35th Parallel MediterrAsian Jazz Ensemble: Todd Roach on Middle Eastern percussion, Michael Chorney on baritone saxophone, Brian Boyes on trumpet, and Zach Tonnissen on tenor and soprano saxophones.

The Green Vine

"An instrumental collage of far-away places, sunny exuberance, and quiet introspection."
– Portsmouth Times

35th Parallel's first album. Released in 2003, The Green Vine quickly became a quiet phenomenon throughout New England. It was listed as one of the 'Top 10 Albums of the Year' by the Burlington Free Press and Seven Days, and has received excellent reviews from critics and fans alike.

For booking and CDs:
35thparallel.com
info@35thparallel.com
802-454-9336

35TH PARALLEL

"Undeniable musical chemistry."

– Burlington Free Press

"A 'Google Earth' for the ears."

– Times Argus

35thParallel.com